Dearest Family at Ashton Grove, Love Where You Live,

God has his plans, sunshine, clouds, and rain. Ashton Grove also had their plans on Monday 6/21/2021.

We celebrated the longest day from noon to 7:00pm. We or they were challenged, the silent auction tables were in the lobby all displayed beautiful. The tour signs, the crafts, the game room were ready. The patio was comfortable with music and the tents were up with tables and chairs. The small children had a play place to bounce around. The servers were serving chips with cheese dip and hot peppers (WOW) and lots of lemonade. O'boy about 2:00pm – here comes the rain. The bourbon tasting bar was full, the crafts and the game room were busy. I was keeping an eye on my bids, for the silent auction. I got 2 items, the Church Afghan John 8-12 and the Georgetown News graphic (loaded "history") $100. I also bought from crafts, 2 pair of flip flops decorated for 4th of July, for my front door. After the 4th who wants 2 pair of blue flip flops?!

The staff and residents wore blue shirts (Love Where You Live) and some visitors also bought shirts. I saw Melissa doing tours (busy). Macee taking care of residents including me (old) serving lemonade etc. You can also see a smile on Ken's face when he greets people. Davonna you can't miss her. She is everywhere, laughs a lot and love (hugs). David is always willing to help and is an early riser. Troy was there around somewhere, in case of maintenance. He was a help when I moved in on 4-22-21. You can always see a smile on Ken's face. I saw Crystal moving chairs, cleaning tables, and making space for people to eat. Good job Crystal (Love). I saw Marcie handing out gifts at the door, as people were leaving, in the Rain! My 2 brothers came and that made my day. Jimmy had a tour when I moved in. Logan was impressed and we all 3 enjoyed the food, thanks to the cooks and servers. We also played bingo. It was a fun day. "Now for the grand finale": David was accompanying guests on the golf cart to their cars, for those not lucky in finding space in the parking lot. He had to wipe all the seats for the next ride up the hill. David said when he got home, he had to wring the water out of his socks.

I apologize to those I left out, but thank you for all that had a part in this day "Great job"

Much love, God Bless

Love, BJM

6-22-21 at the Grove, 8:00am Tue breakfast, Lobby back in place. Coffee tables, chairs in place, floors clean, vac cleaning in the halls.

God had a plan. Ashton Grove had a plan and I had fun! Great job!
